

Groundwork for '68

1967 was progressive 12 months for city of Upland

The year 1967 was a big year for the City of Upland. It was an eventful year characterized by great civic progress. The year 1968 promises to be equally eventful as major civic projects inaugurated in 1967 are completed.

CIVIC CENTER

A matter of major concern to Uplanders for a number of years has been the need for a new Civic Center. In 1967, years of planning were culminated when construction began on Phase I of the Upland Civic Center. Recently, the Upland Civic Center Building Authority sold $1,050,000 in revenue bonds to pay for the new civic buildings which include a 23,000-square-foot library and a 12,000-square-foot Fire Department Headquarters.

Dec. 13, the all-important groundbreaking ceremony was held and work began on Dec. 21. The new library will be located at the northeast corner of Euclid Ave. and "D" St., and the fire station will be on the southwest corner of Arrow Highway and Second Ave.

In order to provide more office space for the Police Department, a number of City offices were recently moved to the City Hall Annex, a converted office building on the northeast corner of Second Ave. and D St. The offices moved to the location are the Building, Business License, Finance, Personnel and Water Departments.

TOWN CENTER PROGRAM
During 1967, the Downtown Revitalization Committee worked long and hard to bring about the continued improvement of the Central Business District. The construction of additional parking lots containing 170 parking stalls began on Dec. 26. These lots are being financed by revenues received from the Parking and Business Improvement Area tax. These lots increase available downtown parking, thereby providing more convenience to shoppers.

The Revitalization Committee also completed plans for the extensive beautification of the downtown shopping area. Special District proceedings for financing this project are presently underway. The proposed program will transform the downtown area into a concourse of beauty and greenery. The total environment will be more inviting to the shopper and traffic circulation will be improved for greater convenience to the shopper.

BEAUTIFICATION
The year 1967 saw major strides taken in the area of urban beautification. The Architectural Review Commission was modified to make it a more effective instrument for encouraging more beautiful structures in Upland. New standards were adopted for advertising signs and for the development of automotive service stations. The City, also, continued its program of landscaping the traffic islands on Foothill Blvd.

Perhaps the most significant beauty treatment occurred on March 15 when the Southern California Edison Company removed 27 power poles from the Euclid Ave. median.

PARKS AND RECREATION
Park development received high priority in 1967. Baldy View Park (11th St.)

was completed and development work on Magnolia Park (15th St.) was begun. The property for these neighborhood parks had been purchased in previous years. A Master Plan for the development of San Antonio Park (Mountain Ave. and 24th St.) was adopted. This 14 acre park will be developed on a "western" theme emphasizing overnight camping. During 1967, 2-1/2 acres adjacent to Memorial Park were acquired and developed for parking purposes.

The City's Summer Recreation Program was highly successful in 1967. Program attendance increased 16% in 1967 over 1966. The program consisted of a variety of activities, including arts and crafts, tennis, story-telling, ballet, women's exercise, archery, metal shop, band, baton twirling, fencing, softball, coed volleyball and girls softball.

STREETS

BENSON AVE.

1967 was a busy year in terms of improvements to major Upland thoroughfares. Work began in late 1967 and will continue into early 1968 on the widening of Benson Ave. at the intersection of Foothill Blvd. A traffic signal will be installed at this intersection during 1968. During 1967, the Pacific Electric Railway decided to the city a 33-foot strip of right-of-way along Benson Ave. from Foothill Blvd. to 16th St. This right-of-way will eventually be used to help widen Benson to its proposed width of 88 feet.

SAN ANTONIO

San Antonio Ave. received a number of improvements in 1967. The roadway was widened from Foothill Blvd. to 13th St. All the intersections from 13th St. to 23rd St. were widened and improved. The street was also re-surfaced from 15th St. to 23rd St.

San Antonio Ave. was also widened and improved from Arrow Highway south to approximately 130 feet north of the Santa Fe tracks. During 1968, Arrow Highway will be widened from 11th St. to Foothill Blvd. The intersection at Arrow Highway will also be widened and improved.

MOUNTAIN AVENUE

The year 1968 holds major improvements in store for Mountain Ave. The roadway will be re-surfaced from 7th St. to Foothill Blvd. with widening and improvements at the intersections of 7th, 9th and 11th Sts.; as well as Arrow Highway. Traffic signals will be installed at the intersections of 7th St., 9th St. and Arrow Highway.

CAMPUS AVENUE

A major construction project during 1967 was the construction and realignment of Campus Ave. between 16th and 19th Sts. This link has improved circulation in the northeast quadrant of the City. In the future, this link will become more important as the Foothill Freeway is constructed north of 19th St.

GROVE AVENUE

In late 1967, work began on the preparation of the intersection of Grove Ave. and Foothill Blvd. for the installation, during the first half of 1968, of a traffic signal.

RAILROAD CROSSINGS

In 1968, the city will construct new drainage structures on Euclid Ave. at the Santa Fe tracks. In addition to improving drainage, these improvements will allow for the widening of Euclid Ave. at the tracks.

Also in 1968, the Santa Fe Railroad Company will install automatic crossing gate devices at points where their tracks intersect Benson Ave., Mountain Ave., San Antonio Ave., Sultana St. and Campus Ave. These crossing gates are similar to those in operation at Euclid Ave. and the Santa Fe tracks.

FIRE PROTECTION

Continued improvement in the City Fire Department was evident throughout 1967. Jan. 31, a Fire Substation was opened on San Antonio Ave. north of 20th St. This station, which resembles a fine residence, houses a first-line engine company to serve northern Upland.

In August, the City took delivery of a new 1000-gallon-per-minute pumper. This new engine has greatly increased Upland's city-wide firefighting capability.

Upland's fire protection will be significantly improved in 1968 when the existing fire station, built in 1915, is replaced by the modern 12,000-square-foot station presently being constructed at the southwest corner of Arrow Highway and Second Ave.

Since modern equipment and facilities cannot be properly utilized without trained personnel, the Fire Department in 1967 conducted extensive training programs. In addition to many hours of on-the-job drilling, local firemen attended Fire Science Courses at Chaffey College.

A Firefighter's Training Academy was conducted by Chaffey College and the West End Fire Departments. Nine Upland Firemen completed the program and received certificates for the Basic Fire Fighting Training Course. Two Fire Captains received certificates on completion of a special course for Fire Company Officers. Prior to the demolition of the houses which occupied the Civic Center site, the Fire Department used these structures for training both volunteers and regulars in actual fire conditions.

POLICE PROTECTION

At present, the Police Department occupies the west wing of the City Hall. As the result of re-shuffling the space within City Hall and the movement of various departments to the City Hall Annex, the Police Department will double their floor-

CAUGHT IN THE ACT -- of finally going over is this old house on the corner of C Street and Third Avenue. The skip loader had been banging away for many hours without too much success and then all of a sudden the old monster gave in and collapsed. This picture was taken Friday morning, Dec. 29 and the area was completely cleared Tuesday morning, Jan. 2.

'Proud and happy' Caborca accepts sister city offer

Upland's Sister City committee will have some good news to talk over when the group meets tomorrow -- Caborca is proud and happy to become Upland's Sister City.

It was announced at City Council meeting Tuesday night by Councilman Zella Stone that a letter had been received by Mayor James Christensen from Dr. Carlos Valencia Ocano of Caborca, Sonora, Mexico, Friday accepting Upland's offer.

Christensen sent the Caborca mayor an invitation Oct. 27.

Caborca is an "inland" city, not a border town, within a day's drive of Upland.

Mrs. Stone heads the Sister City Committee, which will meet at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Jan. 4, in the City Council Chambers.

NOW YOU SEE IT -- NOW YOU DON'T -- as members of the Upland construction crews bring down the old houses and buildings to make room for parking lots, as part of the city's reconstruction and improvement program. Shown in the last painful stages of destruction is one of the old houses on South First.

FAST WORK ON A HIGH FENCE -- to protect the Civic Center site from trespassers a high fence is being put up to enclose the construction area. Men at the site report that the fence will come down when the library is completed.

Six-cent letters

Postal rates going up Jan. 7

Increased rates for all classes of mail except parcel post and international mail (except Canada and Mexico) will go into effect Jan. 7, Postmaster John W. James reminded postal customers.

"Even with the new rates of six cents for first-class mail and 10 cents for air mail, postal service is still a real bargain," Postmaster James declared. "For six cents you can send a letter to any of the 50 states, to any United States territory or possession, to Canada or Mexico, or to an American serviceman stationed anywhere in the world."

Postmaster James pointed out that the new rate for post cards will be five cents and for air mail post cards eight cents.

He said the added cent in the letter rate is a 20% increase compared to a 24% boost in the rates for mailing newspapers and magazines and a 34% hike for advertising circulars, "occupant" mail, and other material in the third-class category.

The new rate of six cents per ounce for first-class mail applies up to 13 ounces and the new rate of 10 cents per ounce for air mail applies up to 7 ounces. Under the new rate structure all first-class mail over 13 ounces and all air mail over 7 ounces will be merged into a single category.

These heavier pieces of first-class and air-mail subject to the single rate schedule will be delivered by the fastest available means of transportation.

A flat rate of 80 cents will be charged for all mail in this category up to one pound. For all mail weighing more than one pound, the present air parcel post rates will continue to apply, except that the postage on matter weighing between one pound and five pounds will change at half-pound intervals rather than one pound intervals.

The Postmaster said that the new rate structure will mean a reduction of postage on some parcels.

Another rate change that will affect the general public is the increase from four to six cents for the first two ounces of individual pieces of third-class mail. Unsealed greeting cards may be sent at this rate, he said.

The Postmaster also noted that effective Jan. 7 special handling will be available on third-class parcels weighing between 8 and 16 ounces. Special handling has not been available on these parcels since 1958, when packages weighing between 8 and 16 ounces were transferred from fourth to third-class mail.

There will be no change in the charges for special delivery, special handling, registered mail, certified mail, cash on delivery service or insurance, the Postmaster said.

"We have an ample supply of one-cent stamps on hand," he said, "for those people who have five-cent stamps and need one-cent stamps to make up the postage required under the new rates."

Higher rates will go into effect Jan. 7 for all categories of second-class mail, bulk rate third-class mail, and the educational materials category of fourth-class mail. Mailers using these classes who need information on the new rate should contact the local Post Office, Postmaster James said.

Police say week end quiet one

The Upland Police Department experienced a relatively quiet three day New Year weekend, reported Capt. John McCarthy this week. "We didn't even have the usual amount of intoxication cases," he said.

Two burglaries, one at Citrus School and one at a private residence were reported along with the arrest of a suspect charged with possession of a stolen car.

Oliver Soderberg, principal of Citrus Elementary School, reported to police Dec. 31, 67 the discovery of an apparent break in at the school.

Police found evidence of a door being kicked in and extensive damage done to the school's office. School officials report cash amounting to approximately $5 missing. Mrs. Virginia Brewer of 1584 N. Euclid Ave., reported to police, Dec. 29, that a 1966 Taco minibus was missing from the family garage. She also told police the family had been away for a week.

Gilbert Flores Acosta, 38, of San Bernardino, has been turned over to the Sheriff's Department for further investigation on the charge of possessing a stolen car.

He was picked up in Upland early in the morning of Jan. 1 and held on a grand theft charge.

First baby of 1968 debuts

A girl born to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald R. Lovellette, of E. Sycamore Ct., Upland, was the first Upland baby of the New Year, making her debut at 9:30 a.m. New Year's Day.

ellette was born, reports a drop of 22 in the number of babies born in 1967 compared to the babies born in 1966.

Records show that last year saw 1,526 newborns at San Antonio as compared with 1,548 the previous year.

St. Marks Church features Epiphany

Parishioners of St. Mark's Episcopal Church will celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany on Saturday, Jan. 6, beginning with a potluck supper and concluding with the Feast of Lights. The dinner is set for 6:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

The Feast of the Epiphany is sometimes called Twelfth Day because twelve days after Christmas and the end of the Christmas Season, commemorates the manifestation of Christ by a star which was seen by the Three Wise Men, or Magi.

The Message of the Epiphany is to send the light of the Christian faith throughout the world.

The Feast of Lights at St. Mark's Episcopal Church is a traditional way of observing the Epiphany.

At the beginning of the service, there will be only one light in the sanctuary, and that is the Christ Candle. As the service progresses, a candle will be lit for each of the 12 Apostles, and then one for each of the significant stages in the church to the present time. From these candles, a candle will be lit for each parishioner, who will then carry it out of the church.

The Rev. John D. Harrison, Rector, said that the act of the parishioners carrying a lighted candle from the church is symbolic of the Business men to be 'kidnapped'

Beware! The Junior Kidnappers will get you if you don't watch out! On Tuesday Jan. 9, members of the Upland Junior Women's Club will kidnap Upland businessmen for a March of Dimes coffee break. Who will the lucky men be that will fall victim to the notorious feminine Kidnappers? Who will be the fortunate ones who will be taken to the "Secret Hideaway" where they will be wine and dined before being released?

The "Kidnap", a special project of the National Federation of Junior Women's Clubs' project "Operation Health Babies", is being conducted in cooperation with The National Foundation-March of Dimes.

The National Foundation-March of Dimes celebrates its 30th year in the health field this year. The National Foundation was started in 1938 by President Roosevelt to fight polio, then an unchecked killer and crippling.

Through came in 1949 when Drs. John Enders, Thomas Weller and Frederick Robbins discovered how to grow polio virus in non-nervous tissue.

For this March of Dimes-supported research they received the Nobel Prize for medicine. In 1954 March of Dimes field trials for Salk vaccine began. Some 1,830,000 children participated. In 1955 Salk vaccine was pronounced safe, potent and effective.

With polio conquered, The National Foundation devoted its resources and know-how to the fight against birth defects. The March of Dimes pioneered a new concept of medical care of birth defect victims by financing treatment centers at which teams of medical experts conduct comprehensive programs of treatment, research and teaching.

In 1960 the first March of Dimes Birth Defects Center opened its doors in Columbus, Ohio. It was succeeded by nearly 100 more, making up a nationwide network.

These Centers are made possible by public contribution. It is the hope of the Juniors that through their project, "Operation Reward", a significant contribution to this cause will be made by their Kidnap Victims, the business men of Upland.

Sycamore Villa

Many merry making affairs were held in the beautiful Sycamore Villa recreation hall during the month of December.

The center was beautifully decorated in keeping with the Christmas decor. Mimi Camp, chairman of the decorations did a spectacular job with the help of her committee: Dottie Aclerno, Leonora Hulan, Zae Cummings, Mary Powers, Margaret Hermann, Jo Kaylor, Odell and Dottie Sanders and Wally and Irene Gustafson. The huge tree was bright and sparkling giving the place an atmosphere of a Christmas fairytale.

The Round Dancers held their Christmas pot luck party and gift exchange. There were 46 in attendance with the ladies radiant in their gorgeous full skirted dresses. Lunch was served at 1:00 p.m., then the proficient dancers danced the afternoon away. The affair was highlighted by exhibition dances by their International team of Clarence and Arola Sheppard from La Canada. Dinner was served at 6:30. There was succulent turkey, ham and fancy salads.

The table decorations were done in floral and candle light theme. Guests at the affair were Odell and Dottie Sanders, managers of Sycamore Villa and the assistant managers, Wally and Irene Gustafson. Round dancers thanked the owners of the Mobile Park for the use of the hall, a dance being held every two months during the year. A wonderful time was had by all.

The monthly breakfast was most gratifying with the attendance of 80 residents and guests. As always, the affair went off in grand style under the expert supervision of our breakfast chairman Earl Foster. Food was delicious and plentiful. Helping Earl in the kitchen were: Ralph Kaylor, Wally Gustafson, Martin Mosley, and Odell Sanders. The waitresses were: Marie Foster, Marian Walker, Margaret Hermann, Maude McIntyre, Jo Kaylor and Ruth Robinson. Toys were gathered at the hall and given to Santa Claus Inc. to help make little hearts happy at Christmas time.

About 30 people from the Mobile Home Park gathered for a bus ride to the television program: Hollywood Squares. They drove to the Covina shopping center and met the bus there that took them to the program. The bus ride was most enjoyable and a good time was had by all. It was quite a day, starting at 8:00 in the afternoon and returning home about 10:00 p.m.

Our monthly pot luck was an especially gala affair celebrating Christmas in the beautifully decorated hall.

The Downeys, owners of the Mobile Park furnished the ham and it was delightfully prepared by Earl Foster. Table decorations being of course the Christmas theme were attractively done by the pot luck chairman, Gloria Snethen and her committee: Jane Newman, Ethel Graham, Maude McIntyre, and Martha Gillette.

After dinner all enjoyed the wonderful music played on the organ by Mr. Hanson. Honored at the birthday table and celebrating December birthdays were: Grace Shanks, Bob Bennett, Stanley Uffner, Mason Wind, Rose Beck, Kenneth Shively, Edith Head, Harold Snethen, Laura Davis and Myron Hanson.

Air Force is in dire need of career nurses

Technical Sergeant Charles Harner, U.S. Air Force Recruiter for this area, has announced that the air force is urgently in need of registered nurses to fill expanding nursing needs at Air Force hospitals throughout the world.

Nurses meeting Air Force eligibility requirements are commissioned as officers and draw the same pay and allowances as men of similar rank.

Sergeant Harner stated that registered nurses, even though not now practicing, are encouraged to visit their local Air Force recruiting office at 160 West 3rd St., Pomona or call NA2-0157 to obtain qualifying information about the U.S. Air Force Nurse Corps.

Sergeant Harner also emphasized that registered nurses not meeting current Air Force nursing requirements, and not now active in nursing, should if at all possible, return to the nursing profession.

The need is so great for nurses in California, that even part-time positions are available through the California Hospital Association.

Hearing set on airport clear zone

A public hearing has been set for the Jan. 25 meeting of the Upland Planning Commission on zoning an "Approach clear zone" for Cable Airport. Such a zone, with probably a golf course in it, has been discussed since before Cable was annexed to the City of Upland.

Dewey Cable is working on the golf course idea. Planners also set a hearing on extending the Civic Center zone south from Ninth St. to A St.

Denial of an asphalt hot mix plant at 17th and Campus, requested by Pacific

Rock and gravel Co., brought an immediate notice of appeal to City Council from the company.

we care

what is Coffee Mill Flavor?

It's fresh-ground flavor you can't get in a can. Fresh-ground flavor you do get in A&P's whole-bean Eight O'Clock, Red Circle and Bokar Coffees.

You see, once the coffee bean is ground, the flavor begins to fade... even when it's vacuum-packed.

That's why, when we at A&P buy the finest coffees we can find, we bring them to you still in the bean. And we custom-grind them exactly right for your coffeemaker... right in your A&P.

Takes a little extra work, but we're happy to do it. That way we can be sure you'll enjoy the full, fresh taste of A&P's Coffee Mill Flavor.

vidual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

A thorough study of basic military subjects, hygiene, first aid and sanitation, and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join the Marine combat forces.

'Who bringing up whom?' title of Jan. 8 lecture

"Who is Bringing Up Whom?" is the title of the speech to be given by sociologist Dr. Nicos Mouratides as the third lecture in a series, "The Family—Making It Tick," being presented by the West End Mental Hygiene Association.

Dr. Mouratides will discuss the inter-generational tensions of the American middle class family. He will explain the roles of the various family members, how different family members may react to each other and to people outside the family, and factors in family alienation and disintegration.

The lecture will be held Monday, Jan. 8, at 7:30 p.m. at Vina Danks Junior High School auditorium, 316 West 1st St., Ontario.

Born in Greece in 1922, Dr. Mouratides attended the University of Athens and came to the United States on an athletic scholarship in 1945. He received his B.A. at Cornell in 1949 and made Phi Beta Kappa.

His M.A. and Ph. D. in sociology were awarded at the University of Minnesota. He taught sociology at the University of Minnesota, at Lake Forest College, and at the present time is associate professor of sociology at San Diego State College.

Between 1955 and 1960 Dr. Mouratides was employed as research sociologist for the Veterans Administration psychiatric hospital. He was awarded a research fellowship with the Public Health Service to continue research in mental hospitals and completed his doctoral dissertation in this area. He has published articles dealing with decision-making and releasing mental patients in such facilities.

Dr. Mouratides is a consultant with the California State Dept. of Mental Hygiene, participating in its psychiatric residency programs, and is a member of the Calif. Committee for Psychiatric Technician Training. His special areas of interest are sociology theory and medical sociology.

Drs. Anna and Nah Brind, specialists in psycho-drama will be featured at the final lecture of the series on Feb. 5.

Daniel D. Mikesell, Chairman of the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors and Chairman of the Southern California Association of Government's (SCAG) Aviation Committee, is shown here receiving a model of the C-5A from Brigadier General Gilbert L. Curtis, Commander 63rd Military Airlift Wing at Norton Air Force Base.

Mikesell had asked General Curtis to serve on SCAG's Aviation Technical Committee and to advise on the Military's role in air space usage in the ten southern counties. General Curtis presented Mikesell with the model of the giant C-5A which will be available to the Military in the very near future and the type available commercially in the early 1970's.

The C-5A will be capable of carrying 700 passengers and can carry 250,000 lbs. of freight. "This amount of passengers being brought into our airports will cause a tremendous problem such as surface transportation, adequate airport facilities, etc.," said Mikesell. Mikesell also said he was very pleased that General Curtis had accepted to serve on SCAG's Technical Committee.

With the population of California now pegged at 19,535,000 as of mid-1967 -- and a strong likelihood of our reaching the 20 million mark by mid-1968 -- the matter of relieving the state's burgeoning traffic congestion problem will be a prime issue before us during the next legislative session.

You will recall that during the 1967 legislature, the development of rapid transit districts was advanced as a solution to the problem.

At that time, two measures were introduced which offered ways of financing state allocations to rapid transit districts.

One would have raised the motor vehicle license fees collected in lieu of property taxes from 2 to 2.5% to provide about $50 million for the purpose. And the other would have extended the sales tax to gasoline, in addition to present state and federal taxes, to raise an estimated $100 million a year.

But neither bill got farther than the Senate Transportation Committee, although passed by the lower house.

Now we learn that the administration will propose legislation to permit local residents to approve ways and means of raising funds to support rapid transit. These funds could be raised through either of the above methods or perhaps a utility tax.

Allowances would have to be made, however, in the case of special districts (such as the Bay Area Rapid Transit District) where the people already have voted on methods of financing, but where a deficit still exists.

In any event, it seems that provisions must be made to finance billion-dollar mass transit systems with revenues other than the local property tax, which now is the sole source of revenue.

The new plan would not saddle rural counties with taxes they neither need or want. By requiring local voter approval, rather than imposing a tax throughout the state, the administration says we can be assured that the tax would be assessed only when and where a need is shown to exist.

"This proposal," it went on to say, "would allow local government to develop supplementary transportation and alleviate localized problems of congestion, mass public transit, and air pollution."

Many of the young patients at Orthopaedic Hospital are active and lively in spite of severe handicaps. They usually are considered medically well because they have no infection or illness. Despite heavy casts and braces, they are often full of pep and spirited enough to devise ways of getting around by themselves.

'Davis' is dead, but his words linger on There's talk about another "hot summer" and maybe a "hot spring" too, when "experts" discuss race relations, troubles will continue in this country until the day comes when men act and react the way "Davis" once put it in Vietnam.

He's dead. But read on. The letter that tells of Davis and his death was written by Chuck London, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack London.

don of 1234 Redding Way, Upland.

Dear Family, Things here are rough, as you might have heard. The N.V.A. have been all over the 173rd. They seem to be slacking off now, but are expected to be re-grouping for another attack.

I'm going back to the 4th Battalion. Enclosed are my orders and new address. I just received your letter.

Dad, Yes, I got the pictures of Lynda on the bike. Thanks a lot!

I have had news. Davis was killed last week on a hill we call "875". He might have been a colored guy and we might have joked him a lot, but he was my best friend, next to Bob. His family knows me about like you knew him. I tell you I still can't believe he's gone. I'd give anything to hear him say

"Get me some slack London." or "Give me five, breez."

He took five rounds from an AK-47 across his chest and one through the head before he stopped fighting. He once told me, "The whole world would be a better place to live if everyone would treat each other like one soldier does another."

I know his memories will remain in the hearts of many.

NORWALK, CONN., HOUR: "A news article... recently told of two children who sounded a false alarm in a downtown area. One was four years old, the other five. Children at such ages are full of pranks. Yet, their education must begin early in the world today. Children must be reminded, continually, that they should not attempt to play near fireboxes found on street corners. A false alarm which brings apparatus and men to an area has the risk to the firemen of a true alarm. Firemen lose no time in answering an alarm from a fire call box. Reminding children to keep away from that unusual-looking red box on a street pole is a public service which parents can provide."

Mikesell review County's 1967 accomplishments

by Daniel D. Mikesell, Chairman, Board of Supervisors

In analyzing the accomplishments of the County of San Bernardino this last year, I think that considerable attention should be given to those areas of great benefit that were underway in 1967, but were conceived and planning started some years before.

It is noteworthy that construction of the first increment of the Devore Freeway, which will be a great boon to the traveling public and help to insure industrial growth in the west end, was started this last year.

Certainly, the merger of the Ontario International Airport with that of the City of Los Angeles was a major stride for substantial growth as the City of Los Angeles is in a position to provide financing for the facility to assure the area of additional air service.

There is no question that the beginning of the industrial waste line, approved by the voters in the west end, and being accomplished by the Chino Basin Municipal Water District will create the final link in providing an excellent home for prospective industry. While these were not necessarily County activities, various personnel, and the backing of this Board of Supervisors, was helpful in bringing this about.

It should be noted, that as all of these projects were started some time ago, and realizing the necessity of closer cooperation with the cities, this county proposed, and the cities of the west end subsequently endorsed and adopted, a Joint Power Agreement whereby all planning will be done on a cooperative basis with the regional concept in mind. This primarily relates to land use, highway development, water distribution, waste disposal, recreational areas, air service and general related subjects.

Certainly, one area cannot exist without true coordination with another. The whole purpose of this West Valley Planning Agency is to plan now for the future so as to assure continued growth at the least cost to the taxpayer.

Our court system has undergone some revision this past year. We have consolidated some courts and have created a uniform Municipal Court system in the County—again, for the sole purpose of saving the taxpayers money and making it more convenient for those requiring court services to be able to obtain them in a more expedient manner.

Anticipating the need for additional courts, the County has embarked on a half million dollar addition to the West End Complex to provide space for these courts and for additional space for the litigants and the jurors. At the same time, a new Municipal Court has been established in the Fontana area to provide additional services to the inhabitants of the Fontana, Rialto and Bloomington areas, so that it is not now necessary for these people to go to San Bernardino to obtain Municipal Court services.

The County has not neglected the Library system. We have made improvements in most of our County libraries; an addition has been started at the Fontana Library. Again, in the matter of cooperation, we have developed with the City of Upland, Ontario, Colton and San Bernardino, a system whereby additional coordination and aids to each of these is furnished with a reduction in cost to the property taxpayer.

Highway and Flood Control advances have been made. The East State Storm Drain has been funded and a contract awarded for the work to eliminate the problem of drainage in the lower part of Ontario.

We have cooperated with Montclair in providing additional drains to permit them to move ahead on their regional commercial complex. The County has advanced the ultimate construction of Cucamonga, Deer Creek, San Seavine Creek flood controls—the process to be ultimately conducted by the Corps of Engineers—by aggressively pursuing this with our Congressman from this District as well as the Corps of Engineers.

From a health and medical standpoint we have moved ahead, too. The County has established a new Mental Health Unit in conjunction with the County Hospital where now we can treat both physical and mental disease. This new mental health unit contains sufficient room for fifty beds. We have also installed new radiological equipment in the County Facility so that medical cases can be better diagnosed and treated.

Recognizing the increase in the detention problem, the County is embarking upon a two million dollar expansion program in Juvenile Hall plus construction of a five million dollar jail facility to take care of offenders.

Certainly the recreation needs in the area have not been overlooked. The Prado Dam bill was passed the last session of the Legislature which in effect permits State funds to be utilized in the recreational development of a 2200 acre regional park in that area. At the same time, for the eastern part of the Second District, Glen Helen Park has been funded and approximately $300,000 will be spent to develop a 400 acre regional park at that location.

It appears that the next year will see a continuance of a considered effort by the Board of Supervisors to reduce the cost of government by greater efficiency and consolidation of certain functions so that we can still provide those services required of government at the least possible cost to the taxpayer.

Chaffey to feature oceanography diver

James R. Stewart of the Scripps Institution of Oceanography will be featured at two community convocations in the Chaffey College Little Theater, Thursday, Jan. 4.

Scripps' chief diving officer will present "Dangerous Marine Animals" at 11 a.m. and "Man in the Sea," a film with commentary at 8 p.m. There will be no admission charge.

Stewart coordinates the efforts of 80 scientist divers at Scripps and conducts training in the use of the scuba as a scientific tool.

He assisted Cmdr. Scott Carpenter in the Navy's Sea Lab II project off La Jolla in 1965. Last June, he was involved in the Westinghouse 600 operation in the Gulf of Mexico. He was one of a seven-man crew testing the ability of oil company divers to cut and weld at a depth of 600 feet.

Among his diving credits are biological and instrumentation work at Eniwetok, studies of canyons off the California and Baja California coasts and collection of deep-water fish in the South and East Pacific. He has also been engaged in the analyses of pollution effects.

Stewart, a 1953 graduate of Pomona College, is skilled in the use of underwater photography.

His appearance here is co-sponsored by the Life Science division and the Associated Student Body.

A new chairman of the National Orange Show's International Exhibition of Photography has been named for the 1968 citrus classic, March 7-17, according to Lloyd Yount, president of this year's show.

He is Harold V. Brown of Fontana, president of the Wind and Sun Council of Camera Clubs. He served on the committee three years prior to his new appointment. Brown succeeds William F. Martens of San Bernardino, who remains on the committee as advisor. Martens and his wife Alice were given considerable credit for developing the international showing into one of the major attractions at the National Orange Show.

Pictorial print committee members are: Margaret Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Rich, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Logsdon of San Bernardino; Bobbie Russell of Fontana; Al Noren and Mr. and Mrs. Brian Journeaux of Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. Syd Thorogood of Upland; Bill and Sylvia Stafford of Pomona; Mr. and Mrs. Art Miller of Redlands; Ron Holland and Dick Rawson of Riverside.

Nature Division committee members are: Lydia Cook, chairman, and Herb Cook of Yucaipa; Ernie Harris of Colton; Bernard Purves and Elsie and Louis Boggs of Glendora; George and Lois Cox of Duarte; Nell and Betty Shipley and Don and Louis Crawford of West Covina.

Modern freeways built by free enterprise contractors have a much lower per-mile motorist death rate than surface streets according to the Engineering and Grading Contractors Association.
